PM: Cong ridiculed me over women's empowerment

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE New Delhi, March 11

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi Monday took a dig at the Opposition saying whenever he spoke from the Red Fort about women empowerment, parties such as the Congress "ridiculed" and "insulted" him. Participating in the Sashakt Nari—Viksit Bharat event, Modi said he is the first Prime Minister who spoke from the ramparts of the Red Fort, a reference to his Independence Day speeches, on issues related to women, including lack of toilets, use of sanitary pads, adverse effects of smoke-causing kitchen fuels like wood and coal, and the need for bank accounts.

In a swipe at previous governments, he said women's lives and hardships were not a priority for them while the BJP dispensation has come out with different initiatives to help them at every stage of life.

"Main pehla Pradhan Mantri hoon jisne Lal Qila se aap mahilaon ke khilaaph bole jaane wale apmaanjanak shabdon ka vishay uthaaya (I am the first Prime Minister, who raised the issue of derogatory words spoken against you women, from the Red Fort)," Modi said.

The PM also witnessed agricultural drone demonstrations conducted by Namo Drone Didis at the Indian Agricultural Research Institute, Pusa, New Delhi. Namo Drone Didis from 10 locations across the nation participated in the demonstration simultaneously, the Prime Minister's Office said in a statement.

"During the programme, the Prime Minister also handed over drones to 1,000 Namo Drone Didis. The Prime Minister also disbursed around Rs 8,000 crore Bank loans to Self Help Groups (SHGs) at subsidised interest rate through Bank Linkage Camps set up by Banks in each district. The Prime Minister also disbursed about ₹2,000 crore Capitalization Support Fund to SHGs,"the statement said.

Union Agriculture Minister Arjun Munda, Minister of Health and Family Welfare; Chemicals and Fertilisers Dr Mansukh Mandaviya, Rural Development Minister Giriraj Singh, and senior officials were also present.

Sandeshkhali: SC not to interfere with HC order

TMC strongman

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE New Delhi, March 11

REFUSING TO INTERFERE with the Calcutta High Court's order transferring the probe into the January 5 attack on ED officials in Sandeshkhali to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), the Supreme Court on Monday asked the West Bengal government why the main accused, TMC strongman Shahjahan Sheikh, was not arrested for a long time. Sheikh, who had gone into hid-Shahjahan Sheikh, ing following the attack on ED officials on January 5, was arrested from Basirhat on February 29, after being on the run for 55 days. The twojudge bench comprising Justice BR

Gavai and Justice Sandeep Mehta, however, agreed to expunge the remarks made by the High Court on the state government and West Bengal Police in its March 5 order.

During the hearing on Monday, Justice Gavai asked Senior Advocate Jaideep Gupta, appearing for the state government: "Why was he (Shahjahan Sheikh) not arrested for so many days?".

Gupta said that while seven persons were arrested following the attack on ED officials, prime accused Sheikh was not arrested as there was a stay on investigation by the High Court.

"We went back to court seeking clarification. Within one day, he (Sheikh) was arrested," Gupta submitted. Appearing for the CBI, Additional Solicitor General SV Raju countered, saying the investigation was stayed by the High Court at a "later stage" and accused the West Bengal Police of trying to dilute the charges against Sheikh.

No Cauvery water to TN now, says Karnataka

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Bengaluru, March 11

With Karnataka facing its worst drought in about four decades that has affected the capital city, the government on Monday announced restrictions on drilling of borewells in the metropolis and categorically stated water from the Cauvery river will not be released to neighbouring Tamil Nadu.

Deputy chief minister DK Shivakumar told reporters the state had not witnessed such a severe drought in three to four decades, and that the next two months are "very much important." He claimed the situation was not as grave as being projected by the opposition BJP. Amid the crisis, the Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB) said it will take legal action against those drilling unauthorised borewells within the city limits, following up on an earlier order that banned the usage of potable water for non-essential purposes in Bengaluru and warning of penalising the violators with a fine of ₹5,000.

March 15 onwards, prior online approval has to be sought for digging borewells, the BWSSB said.

Shivakumar also asserted there is no question of releasing Cauvery river water to Tamil Nadu at any cost now.

"We are not fools in this government to release water (to Tamil Nadu)," added Shivakumar, also the State Congress chief, even as the BJP had attacked the Congress with being keen to protect the interests of the ruling DMK in Tamil Nadu. Congress and DMK are allies. Further, the situation is not as grave as is being projected by the BJP, he said and urged the opposition party to ensure clearance from the Centre for Mekedatu, Mahadayi and otherwater projects of the state.

Responding to a reporter's question, he said it was not his job to ask people to work from home (in the wake of the water crisis), and such a situation has not arisen yet. "It is only a blowup." The government is committed to providing water to citizens of Bengaluru at any cost."People may have to wait for a few hours for water to reach them,"he said.

The administration is making all efforts to manage the crisis and supply water to the citizens, he said, adding, steps have been taken to control the water "mafia" in the city.

"In the last 30-40 years we had not seen such drought; though there was drought earlier we had never declared such a large number of taluks as drought-affected," Shivakumar said.

The deputy CM, also incharge of Bengaluru development, said wherever Cauvery river water has to be supplied in the city, it is being done, but out of 13,900-odd borewells in Bengaluru, nearly 7,000 have become defunct.

"So to control the situation, we have arranged for tankers to supplywater. Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) and Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB) are making all efforts in this regard," he added.

Karnataka has declared drought in 223 out of 240 taluks, out of which 196 are categorised as severely affected.

Alleging that the opposition (BJP-JD(S) combine) was trying to indulge in politics over the issue, Shivakumar said the administration has on its part made efforts to control the water mafia, and provide water by taking it from private borewells, and also rates have been fixed based on distance travelled by the water tankers.

Bloodshed if Constitution is changed: Siddaramaiah EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE Constitution has to be anger among the people in

Bengaluru/ New Delhi, March 11

THE CONGRESS ON Monday reacted sharply to BJP MP Anantkumar Hegde's remarks that his party would amend the Constitution after securing a two-third majority in the Rajya Sabha with Karnataka chief minister Siddaramaiah saying if the Constitution is changed there would be bloodshed in the country, and Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge claiming that the ruling party and the RSS were always against reservation.

Siddaramaiah alleged that the BJP wanted a Constitution in accordancewith Manusmriti."If the Constitution is changed, there will be bloodshed in the country. That is why (Prime Minister) Narendra Modi is floating this idea through Anantkumar Hegde," the CM said.

He was reacting to Hegde's controversial remarks at an event Saturday at Siddapur in Karnataka's Uttara Kannada district where he had said, "The amended because Congress people have fundamentally altered it by introducing some things, especially laws that subjugate the Hindu community. If all this has to change, it cannot be done without a twothird majority."

Siddaramaiah recalled Hegde had previously spoken view and has also sought a about changing the Constitution when he was serving as

Union minister. "This is a conspiracy of the BJP. They are not seeking a majority (in the Lok Sabha polls) for the welfare of the nation or the people but are asking for a majority to change the Constitution," he said. The BJP, he said, had two choices, either to "oust Hegde immediately from the party or to openly agree with what he said"."Let this general elections revolve around this issue," the CM said, adding that there is
